

73. FAILED FRIEND

top wanting to be kind to all and sundry, or believing someone can become good.
All are ungrateful: being generous achieves nothing, rather it wearies even, and greatly harms:
so with me, whom no one oppresses as heavily, bitterly, as he who once held me to be his one and only friend.